Gazehounds & Coursing - The History, Art and Sport of Hunting With Sighthounds:

1 of 1 review helpful A must read for sighthound owners By Bliss This is by far the most readable most informative book I ve read on dogs period It happens to focus on the sighthounds gazehounds most commonly found in the United States as family members runners and hunters It would make a great book to read aloud and share with others It is written in a conversational tone but with good knowledge and research in This revised and expanded edition covers all the AKC sighthound breeds plus the coldbloods staghounds coyote hounds lurchers etc From the farm fields of the Midwest through the wind swept North Plains to the desert Southwest join the author on hunts for jackrabbits coyotes fox and cottontails with a variety of purebred and mixed breed hounds Meet some of the great old houndmen of the past and the legacy and lore they left behind Learn the technique of the tra We whose breath is taken by the sight of a pack of swift hounds sailing over the ground like unguided missiles should give a moment of thanks for the likes of M H Dutch Salmon I suspect that most authors write more for the voice than the money but I ve neve
