0 of 0 review helpful Fantastic By Andre Guy mixes facts and statistics about the woodcock along with personal experience from hunting on flights and feeding activity as well as were if finds them Paired with his deep inner feelings of hunting and killing game and how he cooks them and the friends who he shares a camp with when he hunts this great little bird It is a fantastic book and it sits in my night table along w The woodcock a reclusive game bird native to Europe and North America has been hunted celebrated and eaten since Roman times though most American hunters are still ignorant of its existence Valdene s writing is at once evocative and biting gracefully balancing the obsessions of a naturalist sportsman and gourmand From Publishers Weekly In 1983 Valdene a journalist and enthusiastic bird hunter traveled around the country studying the woodcock and joining the efforts of scientists and bird lovers to band the game bird and document its loss of habitat Summing up what he
