1 of 1 review helpful Does it Follow the String By Ron Braithwaite The book is full of interesting information but I wouldn't want to draw many major conclusions from Pope's findings. He is usually working with one of a kind artifacts and it is unwise in my opinion to base opinions on the bow making or arrow making qualities of an entire group or tribe of people based on a solitary specimen. For example a solitary U 2011 Reprint of 1923 Edition Full facsimile of the original edition not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software. This is Pope's classic study of the actual casting quality and strength of the best specimens of bows of different aboriginal tribes and nations of the world. Pope undertook a detailed test of shooting quality of a series of bows as well as a correlated study concerning the penetration of arrows. Most of the bows were selected from hundreds in possession.
